

Brian Fitzpatrick

Brian had a fascination with uniforms from an early age and in fact recalls his years as an army cadet starting at 12 years old.

His early training served him well since he enlisted in the Canadian Armed Forces, spending a total of 21 years with the Construction Engineers Corps. He spent the first three years of service as an administrative clerk before re-mustering to the construction engineers.

His 7 postings in Canada included time at

- CFB Cornwallis,
- CFB Borden (twice),
- CFB Greenwood,
- CFB Halifax,
- CFB Gander,

- CFB Goose Bay,
- CFB Gagetown (twice)
- and a tour in Egypt (CCUNFME) with the United Nations as a Peacekeeper.

Brian retired from active service in 1991 with the rank of Warrant Officer.

An active 20-year member of Branch 32 of the Royal Canadian Legion, Brian has been an integral part of the branch executive for several years. He has served on the executive committee, as Sgt-at-Arms, Colour Party and as 2nd. Vice.
