Snow

The 1921 census lists George and Dorcas as living at Coley's Point, Bay Roberts area. They have one child, Leah, born in 1920.

Sometime between 1921 and 1926, they moved to Brooklyn, New York, presumably for George to find suitable work. It is here in Jan 1926 that George is born.

By the enumeration time of the 1935 Newfoundland general census, the Snow's are back in Newfoundland and living at Coley's Point. They now have four children: Leah 15, Isaac 11, George 9, and Gilbert 4.

George enlisted in the Royal Newfoundland Regiment in July 1944 and served from 27 July 1944 to 06 August 1945, a little over a year. George's enlistment corresponds with the enlistment of Herman Mercer of Country Road, Bay Roberts. Their service numbers are one digit apart (#'s 1699 and 1698 respectively). Since the two grew up relatively close to each other, the assumption that they were friends, enlisted together and then trained for the RA (Royal Artillery) together is quite plausible. The newspaper item from the Bay Roberts Guardian of September 1944, gives credence to this theory.

George E. Snow of Coley's Point and Herman Mercer of Country Road, recent volunteers for the Royal Artillery, spent last week-end at home. George and Herman have completed one month's training and have to continue training for and additional four weeks. They will get ten days leave at home and will then proceed overseas with the next draft.

According to entries for the 1945 census, George, now twenty-five, is single and living with his parents back in Coley's Point.
