Henry Andrews

Canadian Engineers

Canadian Expeditionary Force

Regimental No. 2678804

World War I

Born: 20 September 1885

Died: May 1968

Place of Birth: Port de Grave,
Newfoundland

Parents: Henry and Rachel Andrews

Henry was living in Millinocket, Maine, USA when he decided to enlist in the CEF (Canadian Expeditionary Force). Henry travelled to Quebec (Montreal ??) and officially enlisted at the Drill Hall in Quebec on the 3rd of May 1918.

His enlistment papers describe Henry as small in stature being only 5' 3" tall, weighing 122 lbs and having brown hair with blue eyes. He was single upon enlistment, an Anglican by faith and rough carpenter by trade. He enlisted for the duration of the war plus six (6) months. He is listed as being 29 and being born in 1889 but according to vital statistics, Henry was older than that and was actually born in 1885.

He was officially attached to the 1st Battalion 2nd Quebec Regiment and subsequently attached to the Canadian Engineers and was part of the 41st draft to go overseas.
