According to John, as noted in his record, he was the victim of gassing in 1918.

Once home, he indicated that he wished to pursue a trade in electrical engineering. He is found at home in the 1921 census with his parents at Clarke's Beach. He is now twenty-six (26) years old.

He then disappears from all official Newfoundland and Canadian documents. He apparently moved to the United States and married Pearl Myrtle (Woodiwiss).

John died in October 1974 at the age of 78 and is buried in the Gate of Heaven Catholic Cemetery, Los Altos, Santa Clara County, California.
