

Malcolm Martin Littlejohn

Royal Canadian Army

WW II

Regimental No. B82600

Malcolm Littlejohn was born in Bay Roberts to parents George and Ethel Littlejohn on 06 July 1920.

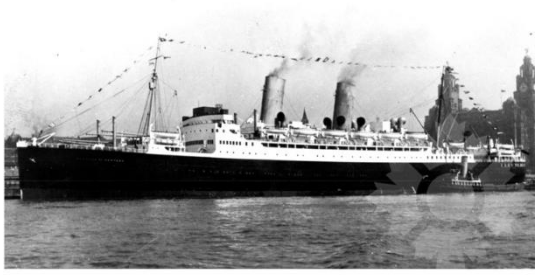

The 1921 census shows Malcolm at age one with only one sibling, an older sister, Winnie, at 4.

In the early 1930's, Malcolm and his family moved to Ontario. He was about 10 at the time.

Malcolm enlisted in the Royal Canadian Army on 06 of September 1939 and served until 02 May 1944, a total of five years and four months. He served as part of the R.C.A.S.C. which stands for Royal Canadian Army Service Corps. He also is listed as part of the C.A.S.F or Canadian Active Service Force. Malcolm was tasked as a motorcycle and truck driver in active service.

While serving in England, Malcolm met and married Gwendoline Chatcroft Chamley on 27 January 1943, at Barton Upton Irwell, Lancashire. Together they had six (6) children, five girls and one boy: Norma, Wendy, George, Pauline, Susan, and Kim.

Gwendoline immigrated to Canada in May 1945 on board the SS Duchess of Bedford. Records indicate that she had 2 children, Norma, and Wendy with her.

SS Duchess of Bedford

Directory records of 1965, 1968, and 1972 show the Littlejohn family as living on Emmott Avenue in Scarborough. Malcolm's occupation is given as a town employee of Scarborough.

Malcolm passed away on 06 September 1987, in the Scarborough area and is buried in the Pine Hill Cemetery. His obituary is noted below.
